LEADING OFF

1 Elizabethtown is 14-6 all-time against Muhlenberg, but haven't played the Mules since 2013. In the last meeting between the two sides, Muhlenberg won 12-3 in Fort Pierce, Fla.

2 The Blue Jays blasted Lebanon Valley in a non-conference showdown yesterday in Annville. E-town scored in six of the nine innings, with 17 runs on 20 hits in a 17-6 win. Senior Nick Lorenz scored a pair of runs, including the 100th of his career. Junior Anthony Knight extended his hit streak to 11 games with a 3-for-5 effort, 3 runs scored and 3 RBIs. Knight is hitting .462 since being penciled in at the leadoff spot.

Fifth-year senior Colby Smith tied his first-year head coach for second on Elizabethtown's all-time RBI list with 115. Smith had 2 RBIs against the Dutchmen and is just 8 RBIs away from tying Chris Romig's program record (123).

3 Junior Taggart Hess and Smith each homered in Elizabethtown's 11-6 win at Lancaster Bible College this past Thursday. It was Hess' first career HR and Smith's third of the season. Hess, Smith, Knight, Derek Manning, and Riley McGinley each had two hits apiece for the Blue Jays. Manning continues to lead the Landmark Conference in average (.415).

4 Muhlenberg snapped a five-game skid with a 4-2 win over McDaniel in a Centennial Conference doubleheader on Saturday. The Mules did so in comeback fashion after trailing 2-0 in the fourth inning. Billy Brittingham and Jon Capra got Muhlenberg level in the fourth. John Serruto gave the Mules the lead in the seventh and Matt Riebesell added an insurance RBI as RJ Hennessey moved to 4-3 on the season with the win. Matthew D'Ambrosia earned his third save of the season.

5 E-town will make up its game with Albright (from Monday, 4/16) tomorrow in Reading, Pa., at 4 p.m.
