LANDMARK SPORTSMANSHIP

Fair and respectful conduct toward all participants and supporters is a tenet of Division III, one that the Landmark and its members strive to achieve at all times.

When attending Landmark contests, keep the following principles in mind:

- Support our family - cheer for our team, not against our opponent
- Do not get personal in your comments about players, coaches, or officials
- No profanity, vulgarity, racist, or sexist comments
- Treat fellow fans and event staff with respect
- Give players, coaches and officials space by keeping away from playing and team benches
- Fans not in compliance with these principles may be removed from the event site

BLUEJAYS TV

BlueJaysTV is the home for live streaming and On Demand video in high definition of Elizabethtown College athletic events. LEADING OFF

1 In 14 all-time meetings between Elizabethtown and Shenandoah, E-town is 3-11 against the Hornets. SU, ranked 6th at the time, won last year's meeting in Winchester, Va., 9-4.

2 Elizabethtown's weekend Landmark series with Catholic had to be split up between Friday and Sunday. The Jays and Cardinals split Friday's doubleheader. Catholic took the series win with a 6-4 triumph on Saturday.

Colby Smith had a team-high 7 at-bats in game two Friday and tied for a team-high with 4 hits. Brennan Snyder went 4-for-5 with 3 RBIs to lead the Blue Jays in an 18-4 romp over CUA to salvage the split. 10 E-town hitters had RBIs, including Smith (1), Anthony Knight (2), JT Thompson (1), Nick Lorenz (1), Derek Manning (1), Arley Shepherd (1), Mike Christy (1), Riley McGinley (2), and Taggart Hess (1).

3 Junior Derek Manning maintains his league-leader status as the Landmark's top hitter (average). Senior Brennan Snyder remains the conference leader in triples with three. Sophomore Riley McGinley is now tied for the lead in stolen bases with ten.

4 Shenandoah, ranked #18 in the latest NCBWA/D3baseball.com poll, has rolled through its schedule to this point. The Hornets have won 11 in a row dating back to March 27. During its win streak, SU is averaging a robust 12 runs per game and have scored double digit runs in seven of their last 11 games.

Robert Marcelle has been the team's best hitter, batting at a .470 clip (39-for-83) with a team-high 39 hits. He also leads the Hornets in stolen bases. Keegan Woolford has accounted for nearly a fifth of Shenandoah's RBI total, with 40 through 26 games.

5 E-town will head down Rt. 283 to square off with Lancaster Bible on Thursday, April 12, at 4 p.m.
