LANDMARK SPORTSMANSHIP

Fair and respectful conduct toward all participants and supporters is a tenet of Division III, one that the Landmark and its members strive to achieve at all times.

When attending Landmark contests, keep the following principles in mind:

- Support our family - cheer for our team, not against our opponent
- Do not get personal in your comments about players, coaches, or officials
- No profanity, vulgarity, racist, or sexist comments
- Treat fellow fans and event staff with respect
- Give players, coaches and officials space by keeping away from playing and team benches
- Fans not in compliance with these principles may be removed from the event site

5 THINGS TO KNOW

1 Elizabethtown is 22-15 against Dickinson since 1980. The Blue Jays and Red Devils split last season's non-conference doubleheader.

2 Emma Varrato hit .800 between the two games in yesterday's sweep of Landmark Conference opponent Drew. The junior upped her season average to over .600 and is the only player in the conference with a batting average over that mark. Brinley Schmidt has been a productive hitter for E-town near the bottom of the lineup. She is currently tied for fourth in the Landmark at .455.

Alyssa Wilkinson tossed a perfect game for the Jays in game one against the Rangers. She walked zero and allowed no hits over five innings and the offense took care of the rest for the sophomore. She also contributed to her own cause with an RBI double. Sarah Personette ended the game in the fifth with a towering three-run homer, her second of the season. With 3 hits on Sunday, Kirstin Blass sits one shy of 100 for her career.

3 Dickinson had a successful trip out to Arizona for 10 neutral site games as a part of the Tuscon Invitational. The Red Devils started the trip off with 5 straight wins, including ending 3 games early. Dickinson scored 10 runs or more in three of their first four games in the Southwest.

The Blue Jays will be wary of top threats Kat Parise and Brigitte Gutpelet. Parise is the team's leading hitter in average and hits. Gutpelet provides speed on the base paths with a team-high 7 stolen bases and 11 runs scored. Kilian Kueny and Madison Milaszewski have combined for 8 of Dickinson's 9 wins.

4 Personette earned the Landmark's Softball Athlete of the Week for her efforts on Sunday.

5 Elizabethtown will face Moravian in Bethlehem, Pa. on Saturday, March 24 for a Landmark Conference doubleheader beginning at 1 p.m.
