LANDMARK SPORTSMANSHIP

Fair and respectful conduct toward all participants and supporters is a tenet of Division III, one that the Landmark and its members strive to achieve at all times.

When attending Landmark contests, keep the following principles in mind:

- Support our family - cheer for our team, not against our opponent
- Do not get personal in your comments about players, coaches, or officials
- No profanity, vulgarity, racist, or sexist comments
- Treat fellow fans and event staff with respect
- Give players, coaches and officials space by keeping away from playing and team benches
- Fans not in compliance with these principles may be removed from the event site

5 THINGS TO KNOW

1 Elizabethtown and Drew have played eight times since 2014 when the Blue Jays became a member of the Landmark Conference. In those eight games, E-town has won five to Drew's three. The teams split last season's doubleheader in Madison, N.J.

2 Emma Varrato has started off the 2018 season on a 10-game hit streak and leads the Landmark Conference in hitting at .576. The conference's Athlete of the Week had 19 hits in 33 at-bats in Florida and set a new career-high with 4 homers. The junior is second in hits, home runs, and RBIs in the Landmark.

Alyssa Wilkinson, the reigning Pitcher of the Week, also had a career week down south. The lefty won all five of her starts and is tied for first in the Landmark in wins. Additionally, she is the only pitcher in the conference with a sub-1.00 ERA, registering a 0.58 through 36.0 innings.

3 Three players in the Landmark are currently hitting over .500, with one being Varrato. Drew has the other two in Brooke Adams and Jasmine Vera. Adams is second in the league at .552 with Vera third at .517. Vera is tied for first in the Landmark with a pair of triples.

Adams, Vera, and Elizabethtown's Wendy Header are all tied for second in stolen bases (3).

4 E-town started off the season unbeaten in its first five games, the program's first 5-0 start since the 2002 season.

5 Elizabethtown will host Dickinson on Monday, March 19, at The Nest for a non-conference doubleheader beginning at 3 p.m.
