THE STARTING 5

1 Elizabethtown won its 15th consecutive non-conference game at Thompson Gymnasium since the start of 2014-15 on Friday night thanks to the late heroics of freshman Roni Isenberg, who connected on a layup with under a second on the clock to lift the Blue Jays over Mary Washington, 56-54.

2 E-town is 68-42 all-time against Lebanon Valley. The Jays won last year's matchup, played at LVC, 80-62. Down a bucket after the first, EC opened up the game with a 22-7 run in the second quarter to lead 41-28 at the half. They outscored the Dutchmen in the third and fourth quarters to take the 18-point victory.

Lydia Lawson had 18 points on 7-for-9 shooting and Mikayla Ruth added 16 for Elizabethtown.

3 Lebanon Valley fell to Stevenson in the MAC Commonwealth Tournament play-in game and then went on to the second round of the ECAC playoffs before falling to Misericordia. The Dutchmen return five upperclassmen, three of which were keys to LVC's winning record in 2017-18.

Anne Lehr, returning captain, appeared in all 28 games and led the squad with 138 assists and averaged 9.7 ppg. Morgan Bamberger and Caroline Scarff both started all 28 games a season ago. Bamberger averaged 8.1 ppg and led the team in threes. Scarff posted a 10.0 ppg average and tied for second on the team at 4.1 rpg.

4 Friday night's game was an illustration of Elizabethtown's grit and toughness. Mary Washington led for nearly three quarters of game time, but EC continued to chip away and hang around before eventually taking the lead in the fourth quarter. E-town hit 9 of 11 free throws in the final period and shot 43 percent from the floor. On the final possession, a hustle play by Veronica Christ to save the ball from going out of bounds on the baseline and her touch went right to Isenberg, who then sank the game-winning basket as time expired.

5 Elizabethtown has the week off before taking part in the Terry Greene Memorial Tournament. E-town will take on host Franklin & Marshall on Saturday, November 17, at 3 p.m.
