GAME NOTES & NEWS

Series Record: Elizabethtown leads 19-7

ELIZABETHTOWN

Mikayla Ruth led the Blue Jays in scoring last season at York (Pa.) with 22 points on 8-for-12 from the floor and a perfect 3-for-3 from beyond the arc. Lydia Lawson and Veronica Christ each added 14 points apiece as E-town handed the Spartans a 71-61 loss at Charles Wolf Gymnasium. This past Saturday, the Jays trailed Southern Virginia in the first half, but came back with a strong second quarter and led into the fourth. A late basket by the Knights with little time remaining was the difference as SVU squeaked past Elizabethtown, 72-70. Christ led three in doubles figures with 21, while Lawson put up 19 points and dished out 12 assists.

YORK (PA.)

On Friday, the Spartans edged Eastern at home in overtime, 62-60. YCP outscored the Eagles over the first three quarters, but Eastern was able to force overtime after a big fourth quarter pulled them even by the end of regulation. Alana Bortner was fouled during a three-point attempt in the last minute of the OT and went on to make all three foul shots, which would wind up sealing the game for York. Bortner was one of four in double digits for the Spartans, led by Haley Luckenbaugh's 18 points. Kayla Ferris had a double-double of 14 points and 15 rebounds. Molly Day added 10 in the win.
